MEMORANDUM FOR THE DD/I

1. The DDCI directs that arrangements be made, effective immediately, for a copy of the President's Intelligence Check List to be delivered directly to General Carroll at the time of the courier delivery of the Check List to Secretary McNamara each morning.

2. The Check List for General Carroll will be for his information personally and solely.

3. The understanding will be that you should arrange for back copies of the Check Lists delivered to Carroll to be picked up for return to CIA every three or four days. They are not to be kept on file in General Carroll's office and General Carroll understands this.
